NAACP Will Hold Mass Meeting Here Sunday

State Welfare Is Operating Here

In an interview with a worker of the State Welfare Board this week, it was made known that many persons eligible for assistance are under the impression that the board has ceased operation here because the local office is open only one-half day of each week. But the worker states the board is still in operation and the local office is located in Room 11 in the Arcade Building. Office hours are from 9:00 a. m. to 12:00 noon each Tuesday. But this does not mean that reports can only be made once per week. In case of an emergency, persons may contact State Welfare Board Unit Office, P. O. Box 89, Daytona Beach, Fla., or Mrs. Edith Crannell, P. O. Box 303, Titusville, Fla. When persons are unable to come to the office, a worker will call at the home of the needy person, the worker said. The board offers: Old age assistance, aid to the blind and aid to dependent children. All persons who have been unable to make proper contact with this office may avail themselves of the information above and act accordingly, and investigations will be made in due time.

Open Letter From NAACP Secretary

Mims, Florida
Sept. 15, 1946

Dear Co-workers:

For more than 12 years now I have been actively connected with the work of the NAACP in Florida. During these years I have served as president and as secretary of the Brevard County branch, and as president of the State Conference.

When the State Conference met in Panama City, June 7-9, plans were adopted to provide a full-time worker for Florida, and I was elected to this position. At the same time Mr. Edward D. Davis of Ocala was unanimously named president-elect of the State Conference. On Sept. 1 I began my duties as executive secretary,

P. T. A. Meeting Held At School

The Parent-Teacher Association of Cocoa Junior High School held its first meeting of the season Monday night, Sept. 16 at the school.

Mrs. Marie Brady, president, outlined the aim of the P-T. A. for this term. Among which was to pay for the ice box and table top oil range for the cafeteria.

Mr. Morse, principal of the school suggested that each family which had at least one child in school be asked to pay $1.00 toward the debt. The suggestion was accepted by the P-T. A. The list bearing names of all families with children in school was given to Mrs. Brady. A committee will be around to each home in the near future to collect this contribution.

It has been arranged by Principal Morse that families get a reduction when they have three or more children eating in the lunch room. If there are three children in one family eating in the lunch room, two will pay 50 cents each per week, and one will pay 25 cents per week, which makes a total of $1.25 per week. If there are four or more children eating, it will cost only $1.50 per week for the group.

The dues were collected. Mrs. Thelma Aron paid her $1.00 contribution at the meeting, which will save the committee a trip. All patrons who desire to do so may send their contribution to the school or give it to Mrs. Marie Brady.

At the close of the business part of the meeting, a delicious repast of cookies and ice cream was served. Everyone enjoyed the meeting.

Tuna fishing boats are reported making such record catches that the 1946 pack of canned tuna may exceed that of all past seasons, according to E. H. Bell, vice-president, American Can Company.

Mr. A. J. Taylor, National Field Director of Interracial Services for Boy Scouts of America, was here last Thursday night from his headquarters in New York City. He was here in the interest of organizing new divisions in scouting in the Central Florida Council and also in the interest of the 1000-to-1 program which will be launched in this council on Oct. 1. To this end, Mr. Taylor conferred until a late hour with local Scout leaders O. H. Jones, Elmer Silas and William D. Monroe.

Mr. Taylor's special message to scouts here is that he desires all boys of scout age to meet the necessary requirements and become a scout of the local troop, and that all delinquent troops in this council re-register in order to be eligible of entering the 1000-to-1 program opening Oct. 1.

From this council Mr. Taylor worked in the North Florida Council, centered in Jacksonville and from there he goes to Memphis, Tenn. With Mr. Taylor here was Mr. J. A. Foster of Sanford, Fla., who is the Field Scout Executive for the Central Florida Council. Mr. Foster extended his trip to Melbourne Friday morning, where he conferred with Scout Leaders John Taylor, A. A. Maxwell and DeLifus in the interest of re-registering the delinquent troop there.

Program Launched to Curb Adult Illiteracy

The Army was successful in attacking a wartime problem which was, and still is, a great national handicap in this country. This problem is adult illiteracy, which is estimated at present to be 10,000,000 in America and of this number 3,000,000 are Negroes, statisticians say. Following some of the Army's examples, correction of this great handicap has been brought into civilian attention and in Hampton, Va., a group of veterans, together with civilian educators, formed an institute on the Adult Education of Negroes, teachers, and map out a program workable to this end.

This group got the cooperation

Edward Davis To Be Guest Speaker

The Brevard County Branch of the NAACP will hold a mass meeting Sunday, Sept. 22 at the Mt. Moriah A. M. E. Church, this city, at which time the branch will present Mr. Edward D. Davis, president of the State Conference, as guest speaker. Mr. Davis (as you will read in Mr. H. T. Moore's Open Letter in this issue) is an educator and speaker of no mean ability and it will do everyone in this community well to hear him on this occasion.

In connection with the speaker's address, a brief program of unusual interest will be presented, all of which will get under way at 3:00 p. m. sharp. It is hoped that at this meeting, the all-out drive for 300 members for Cocoa now on foot, conducted by Mr. Nick Ford, will reach its quota. Mr. Elmer Silas, president of the branch, is urging all members to attend this meeting and is especially inviting the entire public to be on hand to hear Mr. Davis and receive valuable information which he will impart.

From the Editor's Notes

This brings the editor right up to the crop of off-to-college reports in which we have engaged for the past several weeks. Robert Jones of the Osborne Jones family, and Eli McGhee, recently discharged from service, left last week-end for Florida A. and M. College in Tallahassee, while the Script's handy girl, Emmie Hunter and Dave Johnson, of the Script's poem department, left for the same school Monday night. Reginald Duncan is at E-W. C. in Jacksonville and Clifford Footman at Norris Brown College in Atlanta. Eva Wilson is taking nursing at Shaw University, while talented Lucious Edwards, also just loose from Uncle Sam is continuing in radio at Florida Normal College in St. Augustine. Sylvester Weaver was deciding last week whether to let Uncle Sam see him through Florida A. and M. or Florida Normal. We're

Discourtesy

Among the many faults that we are afflicted with, one of the most common is discourtesy. To be courteous is to be kind and obliging and helpful to one another. We so often make the mistake of being decent only to our personal friends and relatives. We should be more anxious to extend the hand of kindness and friendship to strangers than personal acquaintances as strangers at our doors are the ones who need it most.

A fellow is not as likely to need a helping hand when in the midst of friends as when he is found in a strange land and surrounded by strange faces and must listen to strange voices. There is nothing more discouraging to the new comer or fellow seeking to settle in our midst than rebuffs and curt replies as answers to questions asked. Some of us seem to take pleasure in turning the other fellow off short when approached for information. Possibly the ones who are guilty of such gross and ugly acts are persons who have never been away from home and experienced life among strangers, if such has ever been their lot they should know how the other fellow feels under like conditions.

With all our usual handicaps we certainly should not be guilty of making more weighty the burden of our fellow sufferers by acts and words of unkindness. To be civil, polite and friendly is the first mark of intelligence and good breeding. To be the opposite displays ignorance and possibly a poor background. The general tendency to be mean and unkind to one another makes way for disunity and non-cooperation as a group of people. Divisions, quarrels, and bickerings are the natural results.

We unconsciously use our bad deportment towards each other to hinder ourselves and others. We can only progress and succeed through acts of kindness and helpfulness to our neighbors and neighbors' children. If we love one another, we are sure to support one another in any good and worthy undertaking affecting us as a whole. We must be interested in the welfare of the other fellow to succeed as a group.

The following are unsolicited contributions sent in by Script readers for publication in The Script. "Don't Quit" (composer unknown to the editor up to press time) was selected by Mrs. Lillye Mae Goolsby as an inspiration to Script workers to keep the paper going. "The Attic," composed by Nathaniel McGhee of this city, now residing in New York City, is offered for publication in The Script exclusively.

—THE EDITOR.

The Attic

By NATHANIEL MCGHEE

There is an old attic
Where I use to live,
And my! how much pleasure,
It use to give
To go searching
For things laid away,
For most likely
We'd need some day.

There were old hats,
Some caps badly worn,
One or two shirts
With sleeves that were torn;
Some old books
And maybe a chair,
Oh boy, you could always
Find something there.

An old fishing rod
With an old broken reel,
And my, how good
It use to make me feel;
An old Bible
And sister's old dress,
I often wondered
Where was the rest.

In one corner it seemed,
There was nothing but trash
And I'd clean it up
With only one dash.
Each time I went up
I would always be late
But always kept it straight,
On the date.

And when I was tired
With no place to go,
I'd "fall" up there
In the attic, just so.
Looking through those things
Gave me much joy,
For it reminded me of days
When I was a boy.

Don't Quit

Selected by Mrs. Lillye Mae
Goolsby

When things go wrong,
As they sometimes will;
When the road you're trudging
Seems all up-hill;
When the funds are low
And the debts are high,
And you want to smile

But you have to sigh.
When care is pressing you down
a bit,
Rest if you must,
But don't you quit.

Life is queer,
With its twists and turns
As everyone of us
Sometimes learns.
And many a failure turns about
When he might have won had he struck out.
Don't give up though the pace
seems slow,
You may succeed with another
blow,
Often the goal is nearer than
It seems to a faint and faltering man.

Often the struggler has given up,
When he might have captured the victor's cup.
And he learned too late
When the night slipped down,
How close he was to the golden crown.
Success is failure,
Turned inside out.
The silver thint of thec louds of doubt
And you never can tell how close you are.
It may be near when seems afar
So stick to the fight
When you're hardest hit
It's when things seems worse
That you must not quit.

Mr. John Catchings was delightfully surprised with a party given in his honor by Mrs. Robert Wells and his niece, Miss Johnnie Mae Catchings last week at 229 Lemon Street. Twenty-five guests attended this feat and all reported having enjoyed themselves. A repast of shrimp salad and ice cream and cake was served. Mr. Catchings is a World War II veteran of about four years, 36 months of which was spent overseas.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. George Houston, of 806 Avacado Avenue, was the scene of a beautiful house party last Saturday night in honor of Mr. John Dover Willis of Atlanta, Ga. The living room was beautifully decorated with cut flowers of the season, the color scheme being red and green. Games were played and at a late hour delicious refreshments were served, which consisted of baked ham, potato salad on lettuce, fruit salad, beets, stuffed olives, saltines, orange juice punch, nuts and candies. To the regret of those present, Mr. Willis was called away Saturday morning, but as arrangements were already made, the host and hostess continued their plans. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Houston, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Childs, Mesdames Bessie Smith and Mable Baker, Miss Hortense Smith, Mr. Frank Schelkerbrandt, all of this city, and Mrs. Victoria Rogers of Titusville, Fla. At a late hour the guests departed, declaring the Houstons ideal host and hostess.

They enjoyed reading The Script and stated that they will be regular subscribers through Miss Henderson, Dayton agent. Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. John L. Footman, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Brown, Messrs. J. Jenkins and Willie Martin, and Mrs. Althea Bennett of this city.

Mr. Turner Monger, formerly of this city, spent a few days here last week with relatives and friends, among whom was his cousin, Mrs. Lucy Young of 130 Magnolia Street. Mr. Monger had not been here in 20 years. He is now residing in New York City.

Mrs. Lucy Ager left last Saturday via the Champion for New York City, where she will visit her daughter and family, Mrs. Maggie Ryller. On her return, she will visit her son, Mr. Lawyer Ager in Alexandria, Va. Mrs. Ager will be gone one month.

Mrs. Carrie Green of this city, is enjoying a vacation in her home town, Sylvania, Ga. While Mrs. S. E. Green, also of this city, is in Chicago and will go to New York before returning. She is visiting her daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliphant II and A. T., III, of Miami, are in the city visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Hall of Pololo Street. Mrs. Oliphant is the former Miss Althea Hall. The Halls are proud to have their little grandson here on his first visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Moses Simms of College Park, this city, have as their house guest, Mrs. Simms' nephew, Mr. Joe Hughes of Oakland, Calif. We join the Simms in welcoming him here.

Mrs. Lucile Osborne and sister, Miss Mary Prayter, have returned here from Atlanta, Ga., where they were called to the bedside of their mother, Mrs. Mary Prayter. They were away two weeks, and on returning reported that their mother is much improved.

Mrs. Eliza Robinson of Millen, Ga., is here visiting her children, Mrs. Julia Graves, Messrs. Bishop and Willie Robinson. She will be the house guest of Mrs. Graves for several months.

Keep That Cookie Jar Filled

When someone just "drops in" to spend a chatty hour or so it's reassuring to know there is something good in the cookie jar—something you can serve with a cold drink, a cup of chocolate or tea.

With summer the top season for frequent, informal visits, don't be caught with your cookie jar down—down to its last cookie.

Cotton Tops

- 5 Tablespoons shortening
- 1 Egg
- $\frac{3}{4}$  Cup sugar
- 1  $\frac{1}{2}$  Cups flour
- 2  $\frac{1}{2}$  Teaspoons baking powder
- $\frac{1}{2}$  Teaspoon salt
- 6 Tablespoons cocoa
- $\frac{2}{3}$  Cup milk
- Halved marshmallows

Blend shortening with sugar and egg in one easy stirring. Sift the dry ingredients and add alternately with the milk to the first mixture. Pour in greased muffin pans and bake in a moderately hot oven, 375 degrees, for about 20 minutes. Just before removing from the oven, place a halved marshmallow on top of each cake and let it melt slightly.

- $\frac{1}{2}$  Teaspoon salt
- 1 Teaspoon baking powder
- 1 Teaspoon cinnamon
- 1 Cup flour

- $\frac{1}{2}$  Cup shortening
- $\frac{1}{2}$  Cup sugar
- 1 Egg, well beaten
- $\frac{3}{4}$  Cup pastry flour
- $\frac{1}{2}$  Teaspoon salt
- $\frac{1}{2}$  Teaspoon vanilla

Blend shortening with sugar until light and fluffy. Add beaten egg, stir in flour sifted with salt. Beat vigorously. Add flavoring. Drop by teaspoonfuls on cookie sheet rubbed with shortening. Allow room to spread. Put a nutmeat in center of each cookie and bake 10 to 15 minutes in moderate oven (350).

Broccoli Salad Recommended

Have you ever tried broccoli salad? It is a new way to serve an old favorite. With corn sticks, hot tea and a dessert this makes a complete luncheon. Try this salad the next time you have to get lunch in a hurry.

Hot Broccoli Salad

- 1 Bunch broccoli
- 1 Egg, hard cooked
- Stuffed olives
- Lettuce

Cook broccoli in salted boiling water until tender. Drain. Place in glass salad plate. Garnish with sliced egg, olives and lettuce. Serve very hot with French dressing.

Services last Sunday at Mt. Moriah were indeed inspiring. The morning service got under way promptly at 11:00 a. m. with Presiding Elder A. A. Williams delivering the sermon. An exceptionally large crowd was present to witness the baptism of 29 converts, all of whom together with six others were accepted into the church. This portion of the service was presided over by the pastor, the Rev. W. B. Coffey, assisted by the Rev. Williams. Dedication of the church's new water fountain ended this service.

Services continued high throughout the day. Mrs. Mallissa Moore, pioneer citizen here and one of the first members of Mt. Moriah, presented the pastor with a new suit of clothes. The pastor has been away in Jacksonville for a few days, but will be at his post next Sunday.

Sport News

Our Indians suffered a horrible setback last Thursday when bus trouble and what-have-you up in Bunnell, Fla., shut them out of what was to be a mighty big game with Jacksonville. It was reported that an excellent park was awaiting them, too. But then Mgr. Singleton arranged to get them there (too late) and got them back here via train, while the old bus remained for repairs. But the bus got back in ship-shape and in time to get the Indians to Daytona last Sunday. And believe it or not, the Indians scalped Daytona 3-2 in a five-inning game which was called because of rain. Batteries for the Indians were Strickland and Henry; while the official set-up for Daytona was Brown, Sessions and Taylor. Comes Sunday, the Indians will do their war dance on Bradenton, here on our park.

That up and coming prize group, the Green Hornets, played the first game at Ft. Pierce last Saturday in Ft. Pierce and guess what? The score was 4-2, favoring our Hornets. Don't know just now what the Hornets have up their stingers for their next contenders, but just you watch the Script.

An Open Letter

and on that same date, therefore, Mr. Davis became president.

Edward D. Davis is well prepared to fill this position. He served two different terms as president of the Florida State Teachers Association, and he is now president of the Marion County Branch of the NAACP. It was during Mr. Davis' first term as president of the Teachers' Association that the fight for equal salaries was initiated in Florida. Because of his militant stand on this issue Mr. Davis was ousted from the public school system of Florida. He is now operating a successful grocery business in Ocala.

The effort to set up a state office and to provide a full-time secretary marks the beginning of a new era for the NAACP in Florida. This work must be financed primarily by the people of our state. We are starting from the very bottom. We have struggled through the past five years with a borrowed typewriter as our only piece of office equipment. If we are to increase the volume and efficiency of our work, we must have some of the necessary tools. These things cost real money now.

The struggle to get started will no doubt make this first year our most difficult one. We, therefore, are appealing to every civic-minded organization, both state and local, to help our budget for the first year. Individual contributions also will be gratefully accepted. Naturally, we are depending upon our NAACP branches to furnish their share of support. Many branches already have made their initial contributions. We urge the others to do this as early as possible.

The future holds great possibilities. It is our desire to carry the work of the NAACP into every community in Florida. We plan to intensify our efforts to secure for our people a fuller measure of their constitutional rights and privileges. Our success will depend in a large measure, upon the degree of cooperation that we can get from the citizens of Florida. May we depend upon you?

Sincerely yours,

Harry T. Moore, Exec. Sec'y,
Florida State Conference NAACP.

Cocoa Junior High School News

By PETER ROBINSON, JR.

The ninth and tenth grades are very much pleased to have such a nice, dignified teacher as Miss Louise Anita Cuyler as their instructress this year. We are also glad to have with us again Wallace Waldo Williams, who has been spending a few weeks with his uncle in Seattle, Wash.

A series of programs are being sponsored this year every other Friday afternoon in the school auditorium by Miss McGhee, the first of which was presented last Friday. Visitors on that occasion were Messrs. Eli McGhee and Andrew Collins, former students.

In the line of school sports, the basketball team is making preparations for more and better games this season, so get your Script each week from your news boy or from the Dixie News stand at 212½ Magnolia Street, and consult this column for basketball schedules.

From the Police Dept.

John McNeil was arrested early Sunday morning for stealing a guitar from John Henry Baker. He was fined $100 in County Court or 60 days in jail. The guitar was recovered.

Three persons were arrested over the week-end for driving without a license. They were turned over to the sheriff. Each forfeited a $50 bond.

Charles Richard Parker, sailor, of Banana River Air Base was convicted in City Court for operating a taxi without license. Sentence was suspended and he was turned over to the Naval Base.

Week-end arrests have been decreasing. However, reckless driving continues, and the police department is in an all-out effort to stop same. All drivers are cautioned to regard the safety drive.

Twenty-five of the nation's leading railroads are represented in the 1,410 cars now on order with Pullman-Standard Car Manufacturing Company.

Mr. Jackson of King Street, this city, is mourning the death of his father, who passed away last week in Lakeland, Ga., where Mr. Jackson rushed to his bedside on learning of his grave illness. Mr. Jackson arrived late to speak to his father, whom he had not seen in 17 years. The deceased is survived by a widow and other relatives. He was a member of the Catholic Church in Lakeland and was buried therefrom.

The Script extends sympathy to the bereaved family.

not sure which one he chose. The Hall boys are studying, too: David, Jr., returned to Bethune-Cookman College in Daytona, where he is a sophomore, and Milton returned to Industrial High in West Palm Beach. . . . Needless to say Champion Joe Louis won another fight on so late a day as Saturday, for by this time the entire globe knows that the "Brown Atomic Bomber" exploded on Mauriello last Wednesday night in a matter of split seconds, to be exact two minutes and nine seconds. Well he is the champion, and he did his work champion-like.
